

The Tale Of A Camel

Key Word: Warning

Key Verse: When they saw that the star had stopped they were overwhelmed with joy. Matthew 2:10

I was young when we left on the journey, but I was eager for adventure. I was chosen by Balthasar to carry the gifts, which would be used to get us more food when we ran out. I felt very special. We carried two other kings, Caspar and Melchior.

We were following a star so bright it lit the whole sky. There were rumors we were going to visit a new prince, for the only time a star like that appears is before the birth of a really important prince.

It was a very long journey and when our food was gone, it was hard. I couldn't understand why each of our masters kept back one gift and refused to use it to buy food. Melchior had brought a gold shrine. He could have fed us all with that gold, but he kept it to give to the new prince. Caspar had brought frankincense in a jar to anoint this prince. I took a peek at the gift I was carrying. I was so embarrassed. My master, King Balthasar, had brought myrrh to welcome the new prince! Myrrh! Can you believe it? Everyone knows that myrrh is a burial spice. I was so upset that my master was offering myrrh that I decided to do something about it.

I tried to get rid of the saddlebag several times, but they kept putting it back on me. I hoped that the jar would be damaged and he would not be able to present such a bad gift.

When we reached the place where the star had stopped, I couldn't believe my eyes. It was a dirty stable at the back of a cheap inn. This couldn't be the place for a new prince! Melchior and Caspar took up their gold and frankincense. Balthasar came to me for his jar of myrrh. I know I saw and heard angels. I could see the baby prince lying on a pile of straw. The baby looked at me and smiled. It was as though the baby spoke inside my head. "Don't be upset about the myrrh. I will need it one very glorious day for a new beginning!" I didn't really understand, but I was glad to see the myrrh was safe. The baby seemed to smile. It was my most happy moment.

I fell on my knees then, and worshiped that new baby with the rest of the camels and the kings.
