

Barbie Five

Key Word: Jealousy

Key Verse: "If any want to become my followers let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." Mark 8:34b

Five Barbies in the toy box were jealous of each other. "Have you seen the Princess?" asked Barbie One. "Caitlin's made a mess of her hair!" All the Barbies hated the Princess because she was Caitlin's favorite and they were just waiting in the toy box to be played with. Barbie Two whispered to Barbie Three, "The Princess looks a mess! You should see her!" Barbie Three nudged Barbie Four and whispered, "That Princess is such a mess!" For the first time, Barbie Four spoke to Barbie Five, who was the oldest of the Barbies. Her hair was strangely. "That Princess looks hideous!"

Barbie Five felt sorry for the Princess. When she had been new, Caitlin had played with her all the time, loving her and dressing her. Caitlin had cut her hair once and she was thrown into the toy box. A new Barbie appeared after that, and Barbie Five had rarely been out since. The Princess was played with daily. Even in the toy box she sat next to Ken in chairs just their size.

Caitlin brought the Princess in and sat her gently next to Ken. Her hair looked funny, but she was still the favorite. "I love your new hair style!" cried Barbies One, Two, Three, and Four, smiling at the princess. Barbie Five couldn't believe her ears. She thought the Princess should know the truth so she told the Princess, "I think you need to know that you may find yourself thrown in the toy box. It's not so bad here, I enjoy it." The Princess turned her back. "I shall never sink to that," she replied unkindly. Barbie Five was hurt, but she knew she'd told the truth. Barbie Five always spoke the truth.

As Caitlin grew up, both the Princess and Ken were thrown into the toy box. The dolls were all unhappy except Barbie Five. One day the toys were packed into boxes for a garage sale. Caitlin picked up Barbie Five and hugged her. "You were my very first Barbie, and you're the nicest. I'm going to keep you forever. When I have a little girl I will give you to her as her very first toy." And that was exactly what happened.
