

Jerri's Faith

Key Word: Mercy

Key Verse: Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" Mark 10:51a

Jerri was afraid. Since the time when she was a baby she had been wearing glasses. Now she was seven and even with glasses, she could barely see. She did not want to be blind.

Every night Jerri would pray for healing so she might use her vision and her talents to spread God's Word. She believed deep down in her heart that her prayers would be answered.

One afternoon as she came home from school, she noticed there were two unfamiliar cars in her driveway. When she went inside, there was a lady from her church and another lady dressed in a suit.

Jerri's mom introduced her. "Jerri, you remember Mrs. Jones from church, don't you?" This is her new daughter-in-law, Seeria. Seeria is an ophthalmic surgeon from University Hospitals. Dr. Seeria was telling Mrs. Jones about a new operation that heals eyesight and Mrs. Jones remembered how much faith you have in being healed."

Jerri let Dr. Seeria look into her eyes. They agreed that Jerri would come in for an appointment the next week.

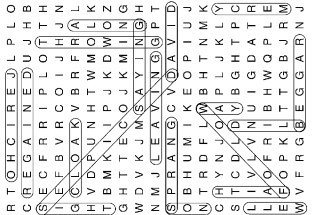

After Mrs. Jones and Dr. Seeria left, Jerri and her mom prayed for Jerri's eyes to be healed. Jerri told her mom that she had faith.

That Christmas Jerri went to church for the first time without wearing glasses. She praised God for sending Dr. Seeria to heal her eyesight. Jerri grew up to be a missionary doctor who helped children in poor countries to be healed.
