

Red, Yellow, And Blue

Key Word: Blessed

Key Verse: "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh." Luke 6:21

Red, Yellow, and Blue were triplets, for they had all been born at the same time. Red was big and square. Yellow was almost as big, and triangular. But little Blue was just a soft, gentle circle with no hard edges at all.

Red and Yellow gobbled up every other shape that came near them, and grew bigger and bigger and bigger. But poor little Blue couldn't get near, and had hardly anything to eat at all.

Red and Yellow laughed and shouted and had lots of fun. Sometimes they laughed at Blue, and had fun at his expense. When that happened, poor little Blue couldn't help tears rolling all over his round tummy.

But Blue went on being soft and gentle, no matter how his brothers treated him. For some reason, this really annoyed Red and Yellow, and they would scream and shout at Blue. Sometimes they even kicked him, and then he would bounce and roll all the way down the road.

One day a new Shape came into the village. She was a White diamond. Blue adored her, for he thought he had never seen anyone so tall or so elegant. Red and Yellow liked White, too, and they gave Blue such a kick that he went hurtling across the fields.

White immediately turned on them and said severely, "Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep."

Then she set off in search of Blue, lifted him up tenderly and carried him back. She set him on a table so that everybody could see him, then she said, "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh."

Blue was so happy that he began to laugh at once. But Red and Yellow were so cross that they began to weep hot, angry tears.

"There!" said White to Blue. "It's already beginning." And she gave Blue such a hug that he found himself growing bigger and bigger and bigger.
